A BILL

To amend the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to allow States to adopt alternate and modified standards for students with disabilities.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, 3 SECTION 1. ALLOWING STATES TO ADOPT ALTERNATE AND 4 MODIFIED STANDARDS FOR STUDENTS WITH 5 DISABILITIES. 6 Section 1111(b)(1) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 6311(b)(1)) is amended 8 by striking subparagraph (B) and inserting the following: 9 "(B) SAME STANDARDS.—

1	"(i) In General.—The academic
2	standards required by subparagraph (A)
3	shall be the same academic standards that
4	the State applies to all schools and chil-
5	dren in the State, except as provided in
6	clause (ii).

"(ii) STUDENTS WITH DISABIL-ITIES.—The State may apply alternate and modified academic standards to students with disabilities who, consistent with the student's individualized education program, and based on the student's disability and level of performance, should be provided opportunities to achieve grade-level proficiency beyond a given school year. The alternate and modified academic standards shall reflect ambitious annual goals for attainment by the students with disabilities.".
